46th Australasian Marist Cricket Carnival

“THE NIGHTWATCHMAN”

Edition #3 – Friday 7th December, 2018

Sacred Heart Auckland vs
Notre Dame Shepparton
at Briagolong

A strong 2nd wicket partnership of 57 steadied the ship after Sacred Heart lost their first wicket early. Karunitalaka was again a solid contributor with the bat, top-scoring with 56 (83). However, Auckland could only amass 124 from 43 overs. Baxter and Andrew Lloyd claimed two wickets each, but Connor Holland was the destroyer, claiming 5/29 for Shepparton. Cormican (31) & Lloyd 69* (77) ensured a comfortable victory as Notre Dame passed the total in 38 overs.

RESULT: Auckland 124 def. by Notre Dame 4/125

Marist College Ashgrove vs
St Joseph's Hunters Hill
at Bundalaguah

At 5/39, the match at the picturesque Bundalaguah ground loomed as a short encounter. But a trio of determined innings from Magee (44), Harding (31) and Lanigan (21) pushed the total to 155. Turnbull and Moraitis the main wicket-takers with three and four respectively. Sellers top-scored with 24 in response, but a steady fall of wickets saw St Joseph's all out for 79 after 33 overs. O'Neill stared with the ball claiming 4/13, but Tom Magee claimed player of the match honours, backing up his betting effort with 3/12 off seven overs.

Result: Ashgrove 155 defeated St Joseph's 79

PLAYER OF THE DAY

Imodha Karunatilaka
Sacred Heart Auckland
56 runs (83) inc. 8x4
vs Notre Dame Shepparton

Catholic College Sale vs
St. Johns Woodlawn
at College Ovals

After being sent into field, the St John's bowling attack took the most of their opportunity, with Fennamore (3/18), Alex Battese (3/12) and Harris (2/12) all ripping through the hosts, who were all out for 97. A 40-run stand between Hurley (29) and Albrecht, in addition to contributions from Whitford (15) and Griffiths (17) pushed Sale near three-figures. The response was swift, with Standish (60* off 85) and Ewing (23) racing past the required total inside of 30 overs. Zak Russell was a shining light, claiming 2/17 off six overs.

Result: CC Sale 97 def. by St John's 3/98 (30)
