PLAYER OF THE DAY

Nathan Whitford
Catholic College Sale
91 off 94 (4x6, 6x2)
And 1/23 off 7 overs
vs St Joseph's Hunters Hill

Catholic College Sale vs
St Joseph's College, Hunters
Hill at College

Looking for their first win of the Carnival, Sale's innings was propelled by opener Nathan Whitford, who blasted 91 off 94 deliveries. He received support from Morrison (19) and Mayne (11), but we were disappointingly all out for 149 with 12 overs still to face. St Joey's began well in their reply, reaching 0/36 before Whitford and Morrison struck. Brayden Glenn (4/22) struck some crucial blows to the middle-order, but Hunters Hill skipper Hugh Bokenham was looking the match-winner as he reached 39 from as many deliveries. An outstanding run-out from Tom Morrison at cover claimed the opposition captain, as CCS notched up their first win inside 45 overs.
RESULT: CC Sale 149 def. St Joseph's 126 (44.3)

Notre Dame Shepparton vs
St John's Woodlawn
At Sale

Batting first, Shepparton began cautiously, with the innings anchored by Cormican's 26 off 104 deliveries. The fall of wickets was steady albeit in tricky conditions, however Black would also chip in for a valuable 34 that saw Notre Dame reach 9/142. Sam McLean was the pick of the bowlers with 5/45 off nine. St John's were on the back foot in their chase, as they were reduced to 5/36. Contributions from Bezrouchko (28) and Fennamore (18), were too little too late, as six different wicket-takers helped Notre Dame claim the points
RESULT: Shepparton def. St Johns 117 (42)

Marist College Ashgrove vs
Sacred Heart Auckland
At Longford

Ashgrove took on the challenge and chose to bat after winning the toss at Stephenson Park. At 1/31 the decision looked to be the correct one, but a collapse saw the Queenslanders lose 9/35 to finish with 66. Wickets were shared amongst Dowling (3/6), O'Callaghan (3/9), Ritchie (2/17), Hardie (2/17). The wicket seemed a bowlers paradise as Sacred Heart were soon struggling at 3/9. But a counter-attacking unbroken stand of 58 between Karunitalaka (25*) and Viljoen (38* off 36) ensured an Auckland victory.
RESULT: Ashgrove 66 def. by Auckland 3/67
