14 Professional Registration and Working with Children

14.1 This clause shall apply in respect of Employees that require professional registration (including Permission to Teach) or a Working with Children Check in order to perform their role.

14.2 Where, for any reason, an Employee does not have the required registration or Working with Children Check (or other evidence sufficient to permit them to work) (the Necessary Authority), the Employer may:

- (a) give the Employee, generally not less than seven days, to obtain the Necessary Authority; and
- (b) give the Employee an opportunity to explain any extenuating circumstances and clarify any matter.

14.3 Where, following the steps in clauses 14.1 and 14.2, the Employer is satisfied that the lack of Necessary Authority is a result of the actions or omissions of the Employee, and not due to any extenuating circumstances, the Employer may stand down the Employee without pay until the Employee satisfies the Employer that they have the Necessary Authority.

15 Variation of hours and/or days and/or times of attendance for part-time Employees

Note: This clause does not apply to an Education Support Employee (School Services stream) in relation to changes to the ordinary starting and finishing times of work (see clause 68.9).

15.1 Variations

- (a) The Employer cannot make a variation to a part-time Employee's number of hours and/or days and/or times of attendance unless it can be demonstrated that such a variation is required as a result of change in enrolment, curriculum, program, organisation, structure, technology or funding.

- (b) In reaching the decision to make a variation to the number of hours and/or days and/or times of attendance of the part-time Employee, the Employer will:
 - (i) Consult with the part-time Employee and give due consideration to the impact of the variation on the part-time Employee's family and personal responsibilities as well as other relevant circumstances;
 - (ii) Advise the part-time Employee whether the proposed variation is required because of a change in enrolment, curriculum, program, organisation, structure, technology or funding; and
 - (iii) Advise the part-time Employee of the proposed change to hours and/or days and/or times of attendance in writing.

- (c) The Employer cannot vary the number of hours and/or days and/or times of attendance of a part-time Employee unless:
 - (i) the Employer has complied with clause 15.1(b) and the part-time Employee agrees in writing; or
 - (ii) the Employer has complied with clause 15.1(b) and seven term weeks' written notice of the variation is given to the part-time Employee concerned. In the absence of the required notice, and where the change involves a drop in salary, the part-time Employee's salary will be maintained at its former level for the period of the notice not given.

15.2 Significant reduction in hours

- (a) Where the Employer proposes to reduce the hours of work (FTE) of an Employee, and either:
 - (i) the reduction in working hours is significant; or
 - (ii) the Employee has had their hours of work reduced within the preceding two years, and the cumulative reduction in working hours is significant,

The Employee may either:

- (i) accept the proposed reduction in working hours; or
 - (ii) elect to receive a severance payment.

- (b) An Employee shall have 21 days in which to confirm in writing to the Employer whether they accept the proposed reduction in working hours, or to elect to terminate their employment and receive a severance payment.

- (c) In the event that an Employee does not advise the Employer in writing within 21 days of their decision to accept the proposed reduction or to receive a severance payment, then the proposed reduction in hours will be deemed to have been accepted.

- (d) In the event that an Employee gives notice in writing that they have elected to receive a severance payment, the Employer shall provide the Employee written notice of termination of their employment in accordance with clause 19.

- (e) Where the part-time Employee elects to receive a severance payment, the Employer shall pay in accordance with the following table:

Period of continuous service	Under 45 years of age	45 years of age or over
Less than 1 year	Nil	Nil
1 year but less than 2 years	4.0 weeks' pay	5.0 weeks' pay
2 years but less than 3 years	7.0 weeks' pay	8.75 weeks' pay
3 years but less than 4 years	10.0 weeks' pay	12.5 weeks' pay
4 years but less than 5 years	12.0 weeks' pay	15.0 weeks' pay
5 years but less than 6 years	14.0 weeks' pay	17.5 weeks' pay
6 years and over	16.0 weeks' pay	20.0 weeks' pay
12 years and over	21.0 weeks' pay	25.0 weeks' pay

continuous service is defined in accordance with clause 6 – Service continuity.

weeks' pay means the ordinary rate of pay for the Employee concerned in accordance with clause 5(l).

- (f) Subject to clause 15.2(g), where the entitlement arises because of more than one change of hours, the severance payment will be paid on the highest FTE of the Employee in the preceding two-year period.
- (g) Where a part-time Employee was offered and rejected a severance payment by the Employer in lieu of a significant reduction in the Employee's working hours, and the Employee chose instead to accept a significant reduction in working hours, the Employee cannot claim a severance payment in relation to that reduction in working hours.

16 Consultation

16.1 Purposes of consultation

- (a) The purpose of this clause is to ensure that each workplace engages in consultation over matters affecting workloads and the arrangement of work.
- (b) The Parties acknowledge that staff morale and Employee job satisfaction is enhanced where the views of all Employees are taken into account before decisions are made. The aim of this Agreement is to establish workplace consultative arrangements that ensure the Employer makes decisions in a framework that enables staff to have input into decisions that affect their working life.
- (c) Consultation means a serious attempt through a fair exchange of views is made in order to reach an understanding and consensus.

For the purpose of this clause, the Parties adopt the following comments made by Smith C. in CPSU, the Community and Public Sector Union v Vodaphone Network Pty Ltd (Print PR911257) "Consultation is not perfunctory advice on what is about to happen. This is a common misconception. Consultation is providing the individual, or other relevant persons, with a bona fide opportunity to influence the decision maker ... Consultation is not joint decision making or even a negative or frustrating barrier to the prerogative of management to make decisions. Consultation allows the decision making process to be informed, particularly as it may affect the employment prospects of individuals."

16.2 Consultation in the College

- (a) Consultation with Teachers and support staff will take place through the Consultative Committee.
- (b) The Principal is responsible for the teaching and learning process within the school. The Principal, as the Employer's representative, has ultimate administrative and operational responsibility for decisions made at the school level, provided that these decisions are made in accordance with the consultation principles outlined in this clause.

- (ii) The Consultative Committee shall meet each year as often as required.

- (viii) To facilitate the consultative process, relevant financial, enrolment and resource details must be provided to members of the Consultative Committee.
- (ix) Where the Committee decides that insufficient consultation has taken place, this concern should be taken up formally with the Principal.
- (x) Where a grievance arises in relation to the operation of the Committee, clause 22 will apply.
- (xi) Where at least three members of the Consultative Committee do not agree with a decision made by the Principal, the Principal shall provide to the Committee members, in writing, the reasons for the decision. The decision will not be implemented until these reasons in writing have been given.
- (xii) Where the Union at the school does not support a decision of the Principal it may inform the Principal of its objections and the reasons for the objections and provide the Principal an opportunity to resolve the matter at the school.
- (xiii) If the matter is not resolved, the Union may refer it to the Employer for resolution including:
 - a. a clear statement of the objection;
 - b. reasons why the decision is not supported and, if appropriate, why the decision is inconsistent with this Agreement; and

 - (ii) major change to the composition, operation or size of the Employer's workforce or to the skills required of Employees;
 - (iii) the elimination or diminution of job opportunities (including opportunities for promotion or tenure);

Provided that where this Agreement makes provision for alteration of any of these matters the alteration shall be deemed not to have significant effect.

17.2 Employer's duty to discuss major change

- (a) The Employer shall discuss with the Employees affected and their Union, the proposed change, alternatives to the proposed change, the introduction of the changes, the effects the changes are likely to have on Employees and the measures to avert or mitigate the adverse effects of such changes on Employees. The Employer shall give prompt consideration to matters raised by the Employees and the Union, in relation to the changes.
- (b) The discussions shall commence as early as practicable after the Employer commences to develop the proposal for major change.

However, the Employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant Employees.
- (e) The Employer must invite the relevant Employees to give their views about the impact of the change including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities. The Employer must give prompt and genuine consideration to matters raised about the change by the relevant Employees.

18 Educational initiatives

To facilitate the introduction of educational initiatives through pilot programmes that schools believe can lead to improved teaching and learning outcomes, schools will be able to determine alternative arrangements to those contained in this Agreement, save that no Employee shall be paid at a rate of pay less than those contained in this Agreement nor be required to perform an unfair, unreasonable or excessive workload. Prior to introducing a pilot programme a school is required to develop a detailed proposal identifying the educational initiative(s), the duration of the programme, the desired outcome(s), the consequences for the workload of the staff concerned and the review and evaluation process. In order to implement any initiative under this clause the school will need the agreement of:

- (c) Payment in lieu of the notice prescribed in clauses 19.3(a) and 19.3(b) shall be made if the appropriate notice period is not given.

- (d) Employment may be terminated by the Employer giving part of the period of notice specified and part payment in lieu thereof.
- (e) Payment in lieu of notice is calculated by taking the amount of salary an Employee would have received on account of ordinary time which the Employee would have worked during the notice period if the Employee's employment had not been terminated.
- (f) The period of notice in this clause shall apply in the case of an Employee whose employment is for a specified period of time.

19.4 Notice of termination by the Employee

The notice of termination to be given by an Employee shall be:

- (a) the same as that required of the Employer in clause 19.3(b); or

The time off shall be taken at a time or times that are convenient to the Employee after consultation with the Employer.

20 Abandonment of employment

20.1 If an Employee has been absent from work for a continuous period exceeding five working days where the Employee:

- (a) has no entitlement to leave for the absence; or
- (b) does not have the consent of the Employer and has not notified the Employer of the absence, then the Employer shall have the right to commence the abandonment of employment procedures set out in this clause.

20.2 Procedure Step 1

The Employer sends, by certified mail to the last known address of the Employee, a letter which:

- (a) states that the Employee is absent without permission from the date of the last required attendance; and
- (b) advises that if the Employee, or an authorised representative of the Employee, does not contact the Employer in writing within 10 days of receipt of the notice providing an explanation for the absence or if the Employee does not return to duty, then the Employee will be deemed to have abandoned their employment.

20.3 Procedure Step 2

- (i) avoid redundancies;
- (ii) delay redundancies where this is not possible; and
- (iii) facilitate those declared redundant to find other suitable employment.

A potential redundancy situation exists where any member of staff could be made redundant.

(c) Employees exempted

This clause shall not apply to Casual Employees or Casual Relief Teachers, or Employees engaged for a specified period of time where termination occurs on the specified termination date.

(d) Timeline

All the steps in clauses 21.2(a) to (g) of this clause must be implemented as early as possible to facilitate proper consultation. Where redundancy(ies) are expected to take effect at the end of a school year, the Employer must give notice (clause 21.2(a)), wherever possible, no later than the end of the third week in Term 3.

21.2 Process

(a) Notice of potential redundancy situation

As soon as a potential redundancy situation is identified, the Employer shall communicate this fact to staff likely to be affected and the Union, in writing, with an outline of the reasons for the potential redundancy and a copy of this clause.

(b) Consultation and consideration of alternatives

- (i) The Employer must, as soon as possible, consult with staff likely to be affected and the Union about the potential redundancy situation and alternatives to potential redundancies. The Employer must provide an estimate of the numbers of positions and details of the job roles and areas likely to be affected.
- (ii) The Employer must investigate the alternatives available to avoid or minimise potential redundancies including:
 - a. what efforts can be made to re-deploy existing staff within the workplace;
 - b. staffing requirements in all other workplaces under the authority of the Employer;
 - c. Any additional funding that may be available;
 - d. Retraining possibilities;
 - e. Possible leave arrangements e.g. Leave Without Pay, Long Service Leave, Parental Leave.
- (iii) The Employer must offer voluntary redundancies but is not required to accept any particular expression of interest in a voluntary redundancy.
- (iv) If the potential redundancy situation is resolved, the Employer shall immediately communicate this fact to the Union and Employees affected.

(c) Redundancy document

If the potential redundancy situation is not resolved, the Employer will send a Redundancy Document to the Union. The Document will include the following information:

- (i) The reasons for the potential redundancy(ies) including any relevant information such as funding, staffing, curriculum and enrolment details.
- (ii) The number and categories of staff likely to be made redundant and the areas where the redundancy(ies) are likely to take place.

- (iii) The alternatives investigated and those still being considered, including the alternatives listed in clause 21.2(b)(ii) and any indications by staff that they are willing to consider an offer of voluntary redundancy.

(d) Redundancy Meeting

- (i) The Employer will meet with the Union to consider the potential redundancy situation and the Redundancy Document. Further meetings may be necessary. At the meeting(s) the Parties will:
 - a. discuss any options remaining to avoid or to reduce redundancies; and
 - b. seek to agree on the criteria to be applied to select staff for compulsory redundancy.
- (ii) Upon reaching agreement on the criteria to be applied the Employer will advise the Union of the name(s) of the person(s) to be declared redundant.
- (iii) If, after two meetings, agreement cannot be reached, the Employer may notify the Union of the action that the Employer intends to take and the criteria applied.

(e) Criteria

The staff member(s) to be made redundant will be determined according to factors determined by the Employer. The Employer will notify the Union of the factors applied and any priority applied to the factors, which may include:

(ii) Employee leaving during notice

An Employee whose employment is terminated by reason of redundancy may terminate employment during the period of notice. The Employee shall be entitled to the same benefits and payments under this clause as if the Employee had remained with the Employer until the expiry of such notice, but not payment in lieu of notice for the period after their termination date.

(g) Leave without pay

- (i) Upon notifying an Employee that their employment is to be terminated by reason of redundancy, the Employer must offer the Employee Leave Without Pay for a period of one year (thereby deferring the date of termination of the Employee(s)). The Employer and Employee may agree to a shorter period of Leave Without Pay.
- (ii) An Employee may elect to take any accrued Long Service Leave during the period of leave instead of any part of the Leave Without Pay. That is, the taking of Long Service Leave will not extend the total period beyond one year.

- (iv) Should a position become available at the workplace during the period of Leave Without Pay for which the Employee has appropriate skills and qualifications, the Employee must be offered the position. If the Employee accepts the position but wishes to remain on the period of Leave Without Pay, they may elect to commence in the position at the expiration of the period of Leave Without Pay.
- (v) If no position becomes available, the Employer shall, 10 weeks prior to the end of the period of Leave Without Pay, give notice of termination to take effect at the expiration of the period of Leave Without Pay.

(d) Transfer to lower paid duties

Where an Employee voluntarily transfers to lower paid duties, the Employee shall be entitled to the same period of notice of transfer as would have been the case if this employment has been terminated and the Employer may at the Employer's option, make payment in lieu thereof an amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary time rate of pay and the new lower ordinary time rate for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

21.4 Severance Payments

(a) Severance Pay Amount

- (i) Where, within 15 days of the termination of their employment, the Employee commences employment with the Employer and there is no loss of benefits (e.g. permanency, weekly hours, salary, Long Service Leave, sick leave, annual leave, superannuation, etc), then the Employee shall not be entitled to severance pay.
- (ii) The Employer in a particular redundancy case may make application to the Commission to have the general severance pay prescription varied if the Employer obtains acceptable alternative employment for an Employee. The Parties agree that the Commission has the power to vary the severance pay prescriptions and issue orders in such circumstances.

the following procedures will apply.

22.2 Procedure Step 1

Every attempt shall be made to resolve a dispute, in the first instance, by discussions between the individual(s) directly involved at the workplace and the Employer. This does not preclude the right of either party to seek advice from outside the workplace, nor does it necessitate such an approach where this is impracticable.

22.3 Procedure Step 2

When a dispute is not resolved by Step 1 (clause 22.2), the Employee or the Employer may each seek the assistance of a representative in order that a further attempt can be made to resolve the matter. The Employee representative may include a Union official or Union delegate.

22.4 Procedure Step 3

- (a) In the event that Steps 1 (clause 22.2) and 2 (clause 22.3) fail to resolve the matter, it may be referred by the Union, the Employee(s) or the Employer to the Commission for its assistance in resolving the matter by conciliation. The matter should not be referred by either party to the Commission prior to the completion of Steps 1 (clause 22.2) and 2 (clause 22.3).
- (b) Until the dispute is determined, work shall continue normally in accordance with the custom or practice existing before the dispute arose, while discussions take place.
- (c) No party shall be prejudiced as to the final settlement by the continuance of work. Health and safety matters are exempted from this sub-clause.
- (d) Where the matter is not resolved by conciliation, a party may request that the Commission arbitrate the matter in dispute. Any such arbitration shall be subject to and in accordance with this clause.
- (e) In arbitrating the dispute the Commission may only:
 - (i) give directions about the process to be followed within the school to resolve the matter in dispute; and/or

- (ii) determine the matter in dispute consistent with the limits or standards set by the relevant provisions of this Agreement.

23 Induction

An induction program will be provided to newly appointed Employees (including Graduate Teachers) upon their commencement of employment with a school. While not an exhaustive list, the induction program shall include the following:

- (b) The Annual Review Meeting may not be used as a substitute for Managing Employment Concerns (clause 13).

24.2 Education Support Employees and Secondary Business Managers

- (a) An Employee is entitled to up to 156 weeks of parental leave if the leave is associated with:
 - (i) the birth of a child of the Employee or the Employee's spouse; or
 - (ii) the placement of a child with the Employee for adoption, and the Employee will have a responsibility for the care of the child.

- (b) Save for any periods of paid leave under clauses 1.4 and 1.5, the parental leave is unpaid.
- (c) The maximum of 156 weeks of leave includes the following periods taken by the Employee:
 - (i) unpaid parental leave;
 - (ii) paid parental leave (clause 1.4);
 - (iii) paid leave taken in conjunction with parental leave (clause 1.5);
 - (iv) if applicable, required leave (clause 2.5(b));
 - (v) keeping in touch days (clause 3.2(c)).
- (d) An Employee's entitlement to 156 weeks of leave is further reduced by any parental leave (with the exception of concurrent leave) taken by the Employee's spouse in relation to the child.
- (e) The period of 156 weeks of leave may be extended where Employees accessing more than 104 weeks of parental leave are subject to a return to work at the commencement of a school year only (as per clause 1.3(i)), unless otherwise agreed.
- (f) The maximum of 156 weeks of leave does not include the following periods taken by the Employee:
 - (i) special maternity leave (whether or not this is taken as paid personal leave) taken by the Employee while the Employee is pregnant in accordance with clause 2.4;
 - (ii) paid no safe job leave taken in accordance with clause 2.6.

Leave must be taken in single continuous period

- (g) The Employee must take parental leave in a single continuous period. The exceptions to this rule are concurrent leave, special maternity leave, leave commenced under clause 2.5, no safe job leave, paid work in Catholic Education and keeping in touch days.

Timing of leave

- (h) If the period of parental leave taken by an Employee is one school term or more:
 - (i) the Employee is encouraged to, so far as practicable, commence leave at the end of a school term; and
 - (ii) the Employee is required to return to work at the start of a school term, preferably at the start of a school year. An Employer may by agreement with the Employee arrange for an Employee to return to work at some date earlier than the commencement of a school term.

- (i) If the period of parental leave taken by an Employee is 104 weeks or more, the Employee is required to return to work at the start of a school year, even if this extends the total period of parental leave beyond 156 weeks, unless otherwise agreed with the Employer.

When birth-related leave must start for pregnant Employee

- (j) If the leave is birth-related leave for an Employee who is pregnant with the child, the period of leave may start:
 - (i) at any time within six weeks before the expected date of birth of the child; or
 - (ii) earlier, if the Employer and Employee so agree;

but must not start later than the date of birth of the child.

When birth-related leave must start for other Employees

- (k) If the leave is birth-related leave but the Employee is not pregnant with the child, the period of leave must start:
 - (i) on the date of birth of the child; or
 - (ii) at any time within 156 weeks after the date of birth of the child, if the Employee has a spouse who:
 - a. is on parental leave between the date of birth of the child and the start date of the leave; or
 - b. is not employed and who has a responsibility for the care of the child for the period between the date of birth of the child and the start date of the leave.

When adoption-related leave must start

- (l) If the leave is adoption-related leave, the period of leave must start:
 - (i) on the day of placement of the child; or
 - (ii) at any time within 156 weeks after the day of placement of the child, if the Employee has a spouse who:
 - a. is on parental leave between the day of placement of the child and the start date of the leave; or
 - b. is not employed and who has a responsibility for the care of the child for the period between the day of placement of the child and the start date of the leave.

Limited entitlement to take concurrent leave

- (m) An Employee may take up to eight weeks of parental leave at the same time that the Employee's spouse also takes parental leave (concurrent leave). The concurrent leave may be taken in separate periods, but, unless the Employer agrees, each period must not be shorter than two weeks.

- (n) Unless the Employer agrees, the concurrent leave must not start before:
 - (i) if the leave is birth-related leave – the date of birth of the child; or
 - (ii) if the leave is adoption-related leave – the day of placement of the child.
- (o) Concurrent leave is an exception to the rules about when the Employee’s period of parental leave must start and the rule that the Employee must take leave in a single continuous period.

Continuous service

- (p) The period of unpaid parental leave does not break the Employee’s continuous service but it does not count as service.

1.4 Paid parental leave

- (a) Paid parental leave is paid maternity leave, paid adoption leave or paid partner leave.

Eligibility for paid parental leave

- (b) Subject to clause 1.4(c), an Employee who is eligible for a period of parental leave will be eligible for a period of paid parental leave.
- (c) An Employee who has previously taken a period of paid parental leave must have returned to work in Catholic Education for three school terms or 30 term weeks of continuous service in order to be eligible for a subsequent period of paid parental leave.

Paid maternity leave

- (d) If the leave is birth-related leave and the Employee is the female who has given birth to the child, the Employee is entitled to paid maternity leave of 16 weeks.

Paid adoption leave

- (e) If the leave is adoption-related leave and the Employee does not have a spouse who is employed in Catholic Education, the Employee is entitled to paid adoption leave of 16 weeks.
- (f) If the leave is adoption-related leave and the Employee has a spouse who is employed in Catholic Education, the Employee and the Employee’s spouse are entitled to an aggregate of 16 weeks of paid adoption leave between them. For example, the Employees may each take eight weeks of paid leave or the first Employee may take 11 weeks of paid adoption leave and the first Employee’s spouse may take five weeks of paid adoption leave.

Paid partner leave

- (g) If the leave is birth-related leave and the Employee's spouse has given birth to the child, the Employee is entitled to paid partner leave of four weeks. Paid partner leave may be taken in two separate periods.

Rate of pay

- (h) Paid parental leave is paid at the Employee's ordinary rate of pay for the Employee's ordinary hours of work for the pre-parental leave position. The Employee is entitled to be paid what the Employee would have been paid had the Employee been at work during that period, including any pay increases as a result of incremental progression or otherwise.

Half Pay Leave

- (i) An Employee who is eligible for paid maternity leave or paid adoption leave may elect to observe that entitlement at the weekly rate of pay for half the Employee's ordinary hours of work in the pre-parental leave position spread over double the period of time (Half Pay Leave). This means that the Employee will receive the same entitlements as an Employee who did not elect to observe Half Pay Leave. For example, an Employee who is eligible for 16 weeks of paid maternity leave and combines that with two weeks of paid non-term weeks, has a total of 18 weeks of paid leave and may elect to observe that entitlement at full pay for 18 weeks or at half pay for 36 weeks.
- (j) For the purposes of Half Pay Leave:
 - (i) the 'initial period of paid maternity leave', means the entitlement to paid maternity leave as defined in clause 1.4(d); and
 - (ii) the 'initial period of paid adoption leave', means the entitlement to paid adoption leave, as defined in clause 1.4(e).
- (k) When an Employee elects to receive Half Pay Leave:
 - (i) the Employee will not be entitled to pay increases or increments beyond the initial period of paid maternity leave or the initial period of paid adoption leave. For example, for an Employee who has a total of 18 weeks of paid leave (16 weeks of paid parental leave and two weeks of paid non-term weeks) and is observing that leave as Half Pay Leave over 36 weeks, the Employee would be entitled to a pay rise that is scheduled in the first 18 weeks but would not be entitled to a pay rise that is scheduled in the second 18 weeks;
 - (ii) the period of Half Pay Leave observed beyond the initial period of paid maternity leave or the initial period of paid adoption leave shall be inclusive of any public holidays or non-term week periods for which the Employee would otherwise receive paid non-term weeks. This means the Employee will not receive additional pay for (other than payment for the Half Pay Leave) or have the period of paid leave extended by any public holidays or non-term weeks that fall within the second half of the period of Half Pay Leave; and

- (iii) pursuant to clause 25.5(b) of this Agreement, the period of Half Pay Leave will result in a proportional adjustment to non-term week pay and leave loading using the formula under clauses 25.5(c) and 25.8 of this Agreement.

The period of paid parental leave

- (l) The period of paid parental leave commences when the Employee commences unpaid parental leave in accordance with clauses 1.3(j) – (l) save that for birth-related leave a period of paid parental leave cannot commence earlier than 20 weeks into the pregnancy.
- (m) The period or periods of paid parental leave cover the first 16 weeks (in the case of paid maternity leave and paid adoption leave) or four weeks (in the case of paid partner leave) of leave taken by the Employee that would otherwise be unpaid (save that Half Pay Leave may be taken over a longer period). Subject to clauses 1.4(n)–(p), an Employee who takes less than 16 weeks' parental leave (in the case of paid maternity leave and paid adoption leave) or less than four weeks' parental leave (in the case of paid partner leave) is entitled to a period of paid parental leave equivalent to the period of parental leave taken by the Employee. For example, if an Employee entitled to paid maternity leave returns to work after a 10-week period of what would otherwise be unpaid parental leave, the Employee will receive 10 weeks of paid parental leave (not the maximum 16 weeks).

Fixed-term Employees

- (n) An Employee who is on a fixed-term contract and who meets the eligibility criteria in clause 1.4 is entitled to paid parental leave.
- (o) If a fixed-term Employee is unable to take the maximum 16 weeks' paid parental leave (in the case of paid maternity leave and paid adoption leave) or four weeks' paid parental leave (in the case of paid partner leave) due to the end of their fixed-term contract, the Employer must pay the Employee a lump sum amount equivalent to the balance of the paid parental leave not taken. For example, if a fixed-term Employee entitled to paid maternity leave takes eight weeks' paid parental leave immediately prior to the end of the fixed-term contract, the Employee will be entitled to be paid a lump sum equivalent to the remaining eight weeks' paid parental leave not taken.
- (p) If a fixed-term Employee would otherwise be eligible to paid parental leave but the expected date of birth of the child is no more than six weeks after the end of the Employee's fixed-term contract, the Employer must, at the end of the contract, pay the Employee a lump sum amount equivalent to 16 weeks of paid parental leave. For example, if an Employee is on a fixed-term contract that ends on 28 January and the Employee is due to give birth on 6 February, the Employee will be entitled to a 16-week lump sum payment at the end of the contract.

Paid parental leave counts as service

- (q) A period of paid parental leave counts as service.

1.5 Interaction with paid leave

- (a) Subject to clause 1.4(k)(ii), an Employee taking parental leave may take only one form of paid leave at a time. For example, an Employee cannot take paid parental leave while receiving non-term week pay for the same period. The period of paid parental leave would cease over the non-term week period for which the Employee receives non-term week pay and resume after that period.

Annual leave and long service leave

- (b) An Employee may instead of or in conjunction with parental leave take any annual leave or long service leave (or any part of such leave) to which the Employee is entitled.

Paid non-term weeks

- (c) Clauses 1.5(d) and (e) apply to an Employee who is entitled to payment during non-term weeks and who takes a period of parental leave.
- (d) An Employee who has taken 15 or fewer days of unpaid leave (including unpaid parental leave and any other unpaid leave) during the school year is entitled to the full amount of non-term week pay.
- (e) An Employee who has taken more than 15 days of unpaid leave (including unpaid parental leave and any other unpaid leave) during the school year will be entitled to a pro-rata amount of non-term week pay, calculated in accordance with clause 25 of this Agreement.

Public holidays

- (f) An Employee taking parental leave is entitled to payment for public holidays only where the public holiday falls during a period of paid leave (such as paid parental leave, annual leave or long service leave) such that the Employee is taking paid leave on the days either side of the public holiday. If a public holiday falls during a period for which an Employee taking parental leave is receiving non-term week pay, the Employee will not receive separate payment for the public holiday as it is part of the non-term week pay. An Employee is not entitled to payment for public holidays during a period of unpaid parental leave.

Personal/carer's leave and compassionate leave

- (g) An Employee is not entitled to take paid personal/carer's leave or compassionate leave while the Employee is taking parental leave (with the exceptions of personal leave taken during a period of special maternity leave or personal leave taken during a period of long service leave as permitted by the long service leave provisions in this Agreement).

Community services leave

- (h) An Employee is not entitled to any payment for community services leave in relation to activities the Employee engages in while taking parental leave.

Paid leave does not extend parental leave

- (i) The taking of any annual leave, long service leave, paid non-term weeks or paid public holidays does not break the continuity of the period of parental leave and does not extend the period of parental leave beyond the maximum of 156 weeks, subject to clause 1.3(e).

1.6 Miscarriage, still birth, child dies (birth-related leave)

- (a) Clause 1.6 applies to birth-related leave only.

Female pregnant beyond 20 weeks or already commenced leave

- (b) Clauses 1.6(c) and (d) apply to a female Employee:
 - (i) whose pregnancy has proceeded for at least 20 weeks; or
 - (ii) who has been pregnant for less than 20 weeks but has already commenced parental leave (other than special maternity leave).
- (c) If the pregnancy of the Employee ends by miscarriage or the birth of a still born child, or the child is born and later dies, the Employee is entitled to take the full amount of parental leave (including any paid parental leave to which the Employee is entitled) that the Employee originally intended to take.
- (d) If the Employee wishes to return to work prior to the intended end date of the parental leave, the Employee must give written notice of their intention to the Employer. The Employer must advise the Employee of the return to work date, which must be no later than the start of the next school term after the date of notice given.

Female pregnant for less than 20 weeks and has not commenced leave

- (e) This clause applies to a female Employee who has been pregnant for less than 20 weeks and who has not yet commenced parental leave (other than any special maternity leave). If the pregnancy of the Employee ends by miscarriage or the birth of a still born child, the Employee will be entitled to special maternity leave under clause 2.4 and any other parental leave applied for will be cancelled.

Employee has commenced leave and spouse has miscarriage, still birth, child dies

- (f) Clauses 1.6(g) and (h) apply to an Employee who has commenced parental leave and whose spouse has been pregnant.
- (g) If the pregnancy of the Employee's spouse ends by miscarriage or the birth of a still born child, or if the child is born and later dies, the Employee is entitled to take the full amount of parental leave (including any paid parental leave to which the Employee is entitled) that the Employee originally intended to take.
- (h) If the Employee wishes to return to work prior to the intended end date of the parental leave, the Employee must give written notice of their intention to the Employer. The Employer must advise the Employee of the return to work date, which must be no later than the start of the next school term after the date of notice given.

Employee has not commenced leave and spouse has miscarriage, still birth or child dies

- (i) This clause applies to an Employee who has applied for but not commenced parental leave and whose spouse has been pregnant. If the pregnancy of the Employee's spouse ends by miscarriage or the birth of a still born child, or if the child is born and later dies, the parental leave applied for but not commenced will be cancelled. Depending on the circumstances, the Employee may be entitled to take personal leave. See also clause 1.6(j).

Other arrangements

- (j) Nothing in clause 1.6 prevents the Employer and the Employee from making alternative arrangements regarding the taking of leave or the return to work of the Employee, taking into consideration the Employee's particular circumstances.

1.7 Cancellation of placement, child dies (adoption-related leave)

- (a) Clause 1.7 applies to adoption-related leave only.

Cancellation of placement for adoption before leave commences

- (b) If an Employee has applied for but not commenced parental leave and the placement of the child for adoption does not proceed, the parental leave will be cancelled.

Child dies or cancellation of placement for adoption after leave commences

- (c) If an Employee has commenced parental leave and either:
(i) the placement of the child for adoption does not proceed; or
(ii) the Employee has taken custody of the child for adoption and the child later dies, the Employee is entitled to take the full amount of parental leave (including any paid parental leave to which the Employee is entitled) that the Employee originally intended to take.

- (d) If the Employee wishes to return to work prior to the intended end date of the parental leave, the Employee must give written notice of their intention to the Employer. The Employer must advise the Employee of the return to work date, which must be no later than the start of the next school term after the date of notice given.

Other arrangements

- (e) Nothing in clause 1.7 prevents the Employer and the Employee from making alternative arrangements regarding the taking of leave or the return to work of the Employee, taking into consideration the Employee's particular circumstances.

1.8 Superannuation

- (a) An Employee is entitled to have superannuation contributions made in respect of the period of the Employee's parental leave for which they are the primary caregiver which occurs on or after the commencement of this Agreement.
- (b) The quantum of superannuation contributions payable under this clause will be calculated based on:
(i) the number of weeks of the Employee's parental leave for which they are the primary caregiver, capped at 52 weeks;
(ii) the Employee's normal rate of pay for their pre-parental leave position;
and

- (iii) the applicable contribution rate under the Superannuation Guarantee Administration Act 1992 (Cth) at the time the payment is made.
- (c) The Employer will pay the superannuation contributions as follows:
 - (i) a monthly contribution whilst the Employee is on paid parental leave
 - (ii) a lump sum contribution at the conclusion of the 52-week period (provided the Employee continues to be employed at that time) or upon the Employee's return to work, whichever is sooner for the period of unpaid parental leave. This does not preclude payments to be made during the 52-week period where this is operationally more efficient for the Employer.

2 Before Leave

2.1 Notice and evidence

Notice periods

- (a) An Employee must provide the Employer with written notice of the taking of parental leave at least 10 weeks before the intended start date of the leave. If that is not practicable in the circumstances, the Employee must give written notice as soon as practicable.
- (b) The notice must specify the intended or presumed start date and end date of the parental leave, and specify any parental leave to be taken by the Employee's spouse.
- (c) The Employee shall notify the Employer as soon as reasonably practicable of any change to the intended start date of the leave.

Evidence

- (d) The notice to the Employer in clause 2.1(a) must be accompanied by the following evidence:
 - (i) if the leave is birth-related leave, a medical certificate confirming the pregnancy and stating the expected date of birth of the child; or
 - (ii) if the leave is adoption-related leave, evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of the expected day of placement of the child and that the child will be under 16 as at the day of placement.

Confirmation or change of intended start and end dates

- (e) At least four weeks before the intended start date of the parental leave, the Employee must:
 - (i) confirm the intended start and end dates of the leave; or
 - (ii) advise the Employer of any changes to the intended start and end dates of the leave;

unless it is not practicable to do so.

Special rules for notice of a second or subsequent period of concurrent leave

- (f) If an Employee takes a second or subsequent period of concurrent leave, clauses 2.1(a) to (e) do not apply. The Employee must give the Employer written notice of the taking of the second and any subsequent periods of concurrent leave at least four weeks before the intended start date of the leave. If that is not practicable in the circumstances, the Employee must give written notice as soon as practicable. The notice must specify the intended start date and end date of the concurrent leave.

General

- (g) Whilst an Employee is required to comply with the notice and evidence requirements of clause 2.1, the requirement is not a condition of eligibility for parental leave.

2.2 Pre-natal medical appointments

- (a) An Employee who is pregnant is entitled to up to 38 hours' paid leave to attend pre-natal medical appointments.
- (b) An Employee whose spouse is pregnant may access paid leave to a maximum of 15.2 hours for the period of the pregnancy to enable the Employee's attendance at routine medical appointments associated with the pregnancy.

2.3 Pre-adoption leave

Entitlement to pre-adoption leave

- (a) The Employer must grant to any Employee who is seeking to adopt a child any unpaid leave not exceeding two days that is required by the Employee to attend any interviews or examinations required to obtain approval for the Employee's adoption of a child. The leave may be taken as a single continuous period of up to two days or any separate periods to which the Employer and Employee agree. If paid leave is available to the Employee, the Employee may elect to take such leave instead of pre-adoption leave.

Notice and evidence

- (b) An Employee must give their Employer notice of the taking of unpaid pre-adoption leave. The notice must be given to the Employer as soon as practicable and must advise the Employer of the duration of the leave.

- (c) The notice must be accompanied by evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the leave is taken to attend an interview or examination.

2.4 Special maternity leave

Entitlement to special maternity leave

- (a) A female Employee is entitled to a period of unpaid special maternity leave if the Employee is not fit for work for a period because:
 - (i) the Employee has a pregnancy-related illness; or
 - (ii) the Employee has been pregnant, and the pregnancy ends within 28 weeks of the expected date of birth of the child otherwise than by the birth of a living child.

Notice and evidence

- (b) An Employee must give their Employer notice of the taking of special maternity leave. The notice must be given to the Employer as soon as practicable and must advise the Employer of the duration, or expected duration, of the leave.
- (c) The notice must be accompanied by a medical certificate stating that the leave is taken for one of the reasons specified in clause 2.4(a).

Personal leave

- (d) An Employee entitled to a period of special maternity leave may elect to take any paid personal leave to which the Employee is entitled during that period (unless the leave is commenced under clause 2.5). If the Employee does not have any accrued personal leave or does not have sufficient accrued personal leave to cover the entire period then all or part of the period of special maternity leave will be unpaid.

2.5 Leave within 6 weeks of birth

Employer may ask Employee to provide a medical certificate

- (a) If a pregnant Employee who is entitled to parental leave continues to work during the six-week period before the expected date of birth of the child, the Employer may ask the Employee to provide a medical certificate containing:
 - (i) a statement of whether the Employee is fit for work;
 - (ii) if the Employee is fit for work – a statement of whether it is inadvisable for the Employee to continue in their present position during a stated period because of:
 - a. illness, or risks, arising out of the Employee's pregnancy; or
 - b. hazards connected with the position.

Employer may require Employee to take parental leave

- (b) The Employer may require the Employee to take a period of parental leave (required leave) as soon as practicable if:
 - (i) the Employee does not give the Employer the requested medical certificate within seven days after the request; or
 - (ii) the Employee gives the Employer a medical certificate stating that the Employee is not fit for work; or
 - (iii) the Employee gives the Employer a medical certificate stating that the Employee is fit for work, but that it is inadvisable for the Employee to continue in their present position for a stated period because of illness, or risks, arising out of the Employee's pregnancy or hazards connected with the position.

When the period of required leave ends

- (c) The period of required leave ends on the earlier of:
 - (i) the end of the pregnancy;
 - (ii) the start date of any parental leave or other leave connected with the birth of the child as specified in the notice provided under clause 2.1.

Special rules about required leave

- (d) Required leave is an exception to the rules about when the Employee's period of parental leave must start and to the rule that the Employee must take their parental leave in a single continuous period.
- (e) The Employee is not required to comply with notice and evidence requirements in relation to the required leave.

2.6 Transfer to a safe job and no safe job leave

Application of this clause

- (a) Clause 2.6 applies to a pregnant Employee if the Employee gives their Employer a medical certificate stating that the Employee is fit for work, but that it is inadvisable for the Employee to continue in their present position during a stated period (risk period) because of:
 - (i) illness, or risks, arising out of the pregnancy; or
 - (ii) hazards connected with that position.
- (b) An appropriate safe job is a safe job that has either the same ordinary hours of work as the Employee's present position or a different number of ordinary hours agreed to by the Employee.

Transfer to appropriate safe job during risk period

- (c) If there is an appropriate safe job available, the Employer must transfer the Employee to that job for the risk period, with no other changes to the Employee's terms and conditions of employment.
- (d) The Employer must pay the Employee for the safe job at the Employee's ordinary rate of pay for the position the Employee was in before the transfer. Any overtime performed by the Employee during the risk period will be paid as overtime on the Employee's ordinary rate of pay.

Paid no safe job leave during risk period

- (e) If the Employee is entitled to parental leave but there is no appropriate safe job available, the Employee is entitled to take paid no safe job leave for the risk period.
- (f) The Employer must pay the Employee at the Employee's ordinary rate of pay applicable immediately prior to the taking of paid no safe job leave in the risk period.

Employer may ask Employee to provide a medical certificate

- (g) If an Employee is on paid no safe job leave during the six-week period before the expected date of birth of the child, the Employer may ask the Employee to provide a medical certificate stating whether the Employee is fit for work. If the circumstances in clause 2.6(b) apply, the Employer may require the Employee to commence parental leave.

Special rules about paid no safe job leave

- (h) Paid no safe job leave is an exception to the rules about when the Employee's period of parental leave must start and to the rule that the Employee must take parental leave in a single continuous period.
- (i) The Employee is not required to comply with notice and evidence requirements in relation to paid no safe job leave.

Unpaid no safe job leave during risk period

- (j) If there is no appropriate safe job available and:
 - (i) the Employee is not entitled to parental leave; and
 - (ii) the Employee has provided the Employer with a medical certificate confirming the Employee's pregnancy, then the Employee is entitled to take unpaid no safe job leave for the risk period.

When the period of no safe job leave ends

- (k) The period of no safe job leave ends on the earlier of:
 - (i) the end of the risk period;
 - (ii) the end of the pregnancy;
 - (iii) if the leave is paid no safe job leave – the start date of any parental leave (including any leave commenced under clause 2.5) or other leave connected with the birth of the child.

3 During Leave

3.1 Communication during parental leave

Obligations of the Employer

- (a) Where an Employee is on parental leave and a definite decision has been made to introduce significant change at the workplace, the Employer shall take reasonable steps to:
 - (i) make information available in relation to any significant effect the change will have on the status, responsibility level, pay or location of the Employee's pre-parental leave position; and
 - (ii) provide an opportunity for the Employee to discuss any significant effect the change will have on the status, responsibility level, pay or location of the Employee's pre-parental leave position.

Obligations of the Employee

- (b) While on unpaid parental leave, the Employee must:
 - (i) take reasonable steps to inform the Employer about any significant matter that will affect the Employee's decision regarding the duration of parental leave, whether the Employee intends to return to work and whether the Employee intends to request to return to work on a part-time basis; and
 - (ii) notify the Employer of any changes of address or other contact details which might affect the Employer's capacity to contact the Employee.

3.2 Paid work during parental leave

- (a) The Employee must not perform work for the Employer during any period for which the Employee receives payment from the Employer (for example, paid parental leave, long service leave, annual leave).
- (b) During a period of parental leave, an Employee who wishes to engage in paid work with another employer, must first obtain consent from the Employer. The Employer must not reasonably withhold consent.

Keeping in touch days

- (c) An Employee may perform paid work for the Employer on a keeping in touch day during a period of parental leave. Such a day is a keeping in touch day if:
 - (i) the purpose of performing the work is to enable the Employee to keep in touch with their employment in order to facilitate a return to work after the end of the period of parental leave; and
 - (ii) both the Employee and the Employer consent to the Employee performing paid work for the Employer on that day; and
 - (iii) the day is not within:
 - a. if the work is at the request of the Employee – 14 days after the date of birth, or day of placement, of the child; or
 - b. otherwise – 42 days after the date of birth, or day of placement, of the child.
- (d) An Employee is entitled to be paid the Employee's ordinary rate of pay plus an 18% loading for work performed on a keeping in touch day. Such work does not count as service for the purpose of leave accruals.
- (e) An Employee must not perform paid work on a keeping in touch day during any period for which the Employee receives payment from the Employer (for example, paid parental leave, long service leave, annual leave).
- (f) Work performed on a keeping in touch day does not break the continuity of the period of parental leave and does not extend the period of parental leave beyond the end date of the leave or the maximum period of 156 weeks, subject to clause 1.3(e).

3.3 Employee ceases care of child

- (a) If an Employee on parental leave ceases to have any responsibility for the care of the child (other than in the circumstances of clauses 1.6 or 1.7), the Employer may elect to give the Employee written notice requiring the Employee to return to work no earlier than eight weeks after the date of the notice.
- (b) Nothing in clause 3.3 prevents the Employer and the Employee from making alternative arrangements regarding the taking of leave or the return to work of the Employee, taking into consideration the Employee's particular circumstances.

3.4 Replacement Employees

- (a) Before an Employer engages an Employee to perform the work of another Employee who is taking parental leave, the Employer must notify the replacement Employee:
 - (i) that the engagement to perform that work is temporary;

- (ii) of the rights the Employer and the Employee taking parental leave have to cancel the leave if the pregnancy ends other than by the birth of a living child or if the child dies after birth; and
 - (iii) of the rights the Employee taking parental leave has to end the leave early if the pregnancy ends other than by the birth of a living child or if the child dies after birth; and
 - (iv) of the right of the Employee taking parental leave to return to the Employee's pre-parental leave position at the end of the leave; and
 - (v) of the right of the Employer to require the Employee taking parental leave to return to work if the Employee ceases to have any responsibility for the care of the child.
- (b) Before an Employer temporarily promotes or transfers an Employee to replace an Employee taking parental leave, the Employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the promotion or transfer and the rights of the Employee who is being replaced.
- (c) Nothing in clause 3.4 requires an Employer to engage a replacement Employee.

3.5 Subsequent pregnancy or adoption during leave

- (a) If an Employee is on parental leave and either:
 - (i) the Employee or the Employee's spouse gives birth to another child; or
 - (ii) another child is placed with the Employee for adoption,and the Employee has responsibility for the care of the child, the Employee will be entitled to a subsequent period of parental leave.
- (b) The subsequent period of parental leave is a separate period of leave of up to 156 weeks. The subsequent period of parental leave commences on the date of birth or day of placement of the child.
- (c) The Employee shall comply with the notice and evidence requirements under clause 2.1 in relation to the subsequent period of parental leave. The Employee is not required to return to work to be eligible for the subsequent period of parental leave, but will only be eligible for paid parental leave if they satisfy the requirements in clauses 1.4(b) and (c).

4 Returning to work

4.1 Timing of return to work

- (a) If the period of parental leave taken by an Employee is one school term or more, the Employee is required to return to work at the start of a school term, preferably at the start of a school year. An Employer may by agreement with the Employee arrange for an Employee to return to work at some date earlier than the commencement of a school term.
- (b) If the period of parental leave taken by an Employee is 104 weeks or more, the Employee is required to return to work at the start of a school year, even if this extends the total period of parental leave beyond 156 weeks unless otherwise agreed with the Employer.

4.2 Changing the end date of leave

First extension by giving notice to Employer

- (a) An Employee on parental leave may extend the period of parental leave once by giving the Employer written notice of the extension at least four weeks before the end date of the original leave period. The notice must specify the new end date for the leave. The total period of parental leave including the extension (and including any parental leave taken by the Employee's spouse save for concurrent leave) must be no more than 156 weeks (unless clause 1.3(e) applies and the leave is extended to allow a return to work at the start of a school year).

Further extensions by agreement with Employer

- (b) If the Employer agrees, the Employee may further extend the period of parental leave one or more times.

Reducing the period of parental leave by agreement with Employer

- (c) If the Employer agrees, an Employee may reduce the period of parental leave and return to work prior to the original end date of the leave.

4.3 Return to work guarantee

- (a) On ending parental leave (including any special maternity leave), an Employee is entitled to return to:
 - (i) the Employee's pre-parental leave position; or
 - (ii) if that position no longer exists, a position commensurate with their qualifications and experience.

- (b) An Employee with an ongoing part-time position is entitled to return to an ongoing part-time position of the same number of hours per week but not necessarily the times or class levels.

4.4 Notice of return to work

- (a) Clause 4.4 applies to Employees taking parental leave for a period of one school term or more. For Employees taking parental leave for less than one school term, notice of return to work is taken to be covered by the confirmation of the end date of parental leave under clause 2.1(e).
- (b) An Employee must confirm their intention to return to work in writing as soon as practicable but not less than one school term prior to the Employee's intended return to work date.
- (c) If an Employer does not receive such notice from the Employee by the date in clause 4.4(b), the Employer may send written notice to the Employee requesting confirmation of the Employee's intentions.

4.5 Return to work arrangements

Where an Employee returns to work from parental leave, and requests arrangements for facilitating and accommodating breast feeding, the Employer will make reasonable arrangements.

4.6 Return to work part-time

- (a) Subject to clause 4.6, an Employee returning to work from parental leave may work part-time in one or more periods at any time from their return to work until the child reaches school age.

Request for part-time work

- (b) An Employee who is returning to work from a period of parental leave is eligible to make a request to the Employer for part-time work if the Employee has a child under school age.
- (c) The request for part-time work must:
 - (i) be in writing;
 - (ii) be made as soon as practicable but not less than eight weeks, wholly within a school term, prior to the Employee's intended return to work date (where practicable, Employees are encouraged to give one term's notice of the request for part-time work);
 - (iii) set out details of the nature of part-time work sought;
 - (iv) specify the start and end dates of the period of part-time work sought.

Response to the request

- (d) The Employer must give the Employee a written response to the request for part-time work within 21 days of the request, stating whether the Employer grants or refuses the request.
- (e) The Employer must consider the request to work part-time having regard to the Employee's circumstances and, provided the request is genuinely based on the Employee's parental responsibilities, may only refuse to permit the Employee part-time work on reasonable grounds related to the effect of the change on the workplace or the Employer's business. If the Employer refuses the request for part-time work, the written response must include details of the reasons for the refusal.
- (f) Without limiting what are reasonable grounds related to the effect of the change on the workplace or the Employer's business, such grounds include the following:
 - (i) that the new working arrangements requested by the Employee would be too costly for the Employer;
 - (ii) that there is no capacity to change the working arrangements of other Employees to accommodate the new working arrangements requested by the Employee;
 - (iii) that it would be impractical to change the working arrangements of other Employees, or recruit new Employees, to accommodate the new working arrangements requested by the Employee;
 - (iv) that the new working arrangements requested by the Employee would be likely to result in a significant loss in efficiency or productivity;
 - (v) that the new working arrangements requested by the Employee would be likely to have a significant negative impact on customer service.
- (g) The work to be performed part-time need not be the work performed by the Employee in their former position but must be work commensurate with the Employee's qualifications and experience.

Part-time work agreement

- (h) Before commencing part-time work under this Appendix, the Employer and Employee must enter into a part-time work agreement that contains the following information:
 - (i) that the part-time work agreement constitutes a temporary variation of the Employee's ongoing position;
 - (ii) details of the part-time work (including hours to be worked, days of work and commencing times for work for the specific period of the part-time work agreement);
 - (iii) the start and end dates of the period of part-time work; and
 - (iv) that the part-time work agreement may be varied by consent.

- (i) The terms of the part-time work agreement and any variation to it shall be in writing and retained by the Employer. A copy of the part-time work agreement and any variation to it shall be provided to the Employee by the Employer.

Subsequent periods of part-time work

- (j) If an Employee continues to be eligible under clause 4.6(b), the Employee may request a subsequent period or periods of part-time work. Clause 4.6 applies to any such subsequent requests as though they were an initial request for part-time work.

End of part-time work

- (k) In clause 4.6, the former position means the permanent position held by an Employee prior to a period or periods of part-time work. If the Employee enters into a part-time work agreement upon their return to work from parental leave, the former position will be the permanent pre-parental leave position.
- (l) At the expiration of the part-time work agreement, if the Employer and Employee have not entered into a subsequent part-time work agreement, the Employee is entitled to return to:
 - (i) the Employee's former position; or
 - (ii) if that position no longer exists – a commensurate position for which the Employee is qualified and suited nearest in status and pay to the former position.

APPENDIX 2

Supported Wage System

Appendix 2 Supported Wage System

1.1 Supported Wage System

This Appendix defines the conditions which will apply to Employees who, because of the effects of a disability, are eligible for a supported wage under the terms of this Agreement. In the context of this Appendix, the following definitions will apply:

- (a) Accredited Assessor means a person accredited by the management unit established by the Commonwealth under the supported wage system to perform assessments of an individual's productive capacity within the supported wage system.
- (b) Assessment instrument means the form provided for under the supported wage system that records the assessment of the productive capacity of the person to be employed under the supported wage system.
- (c) Disability support pension means the Commonwealth pension scheme to provide income security for persons with a disability as provided under the Social Security Act 1991, as amended from time to time, or any successor to that scheme.
- (d) Supported Wage System means the Commonwealth Government system to promote employment for people who cannot work at full Award wages because of a disability, as documented in the Supported Wage System in Open Employment Handbook, as in force and amended from time to time.

2.1 Eligibility criteria

- (a) Employees covered by this Appendix will be those who are unable to perform the range of duties to the competence level required within the class of work for which the Employee is engaged under this Agreement, because of the effects of a disability on their productive capacity and who meet the impairment criteria for receipt of a disability support pension.
- (b) The Employee is not an existing Employee who has a claim against the Employer which is subject to the provisions of worker's compensation legislation or any provision of this Agreement relating to the rehabilitation of Employees who are injured in the course of their employment.

This Appendix does not apply to the Employer in respect of any facility, programme, undertaking, service or the like which receives funding under the Disability Services Act 1986 (or any successor legislation) and fulfils the dual role of service provider and sheltered Employer to people with disabilities who are in receipt of or are eligible for a disability support pension, except with respect to an organisation which has received recognition under s.10 or under s.12A of the Disability Services Act 1986, or if a part only has received recognition, that part.

3.1 Supported wage rates

- (a) Employees to whom this Appendix applies will be paid the applicable percentage of the minimum rate of pay prescribed by this Agreement for the class of work which the person is performing according to the following Schedule:

Assessed capacity	Minimum agreement rate for class of work
10%	10%
20%	20%
30%	30%
40%	40%
50%	50%
60%	60%
70%	70%
80%	80%
90%	90%

- (b) Provided that, the minimum amount payable will be not less than the minimum amount as provided for in the Fair Work Commission's annual National Minimum Wage decision as prescribed on 1 July each year.
- (c) Where a person's assessed capacity is 10%, they will receive a high degree of assistance and support.

4.1 Assessment of capacity

For the purpose of establishing the percentage of the Agreement rate to be paid to an Employee under this Agreement, the productive capacity of the Employee must be assessed in accordance with the Supported Wage System and documented in an assessment instrument by either:

- (a) The Employer and the Union part to the Agreement, in consultation with the Employee or, if desired by any of these;
- (b) The Employer and an accredited assessor from a panel agreed by the parties to the Agreement and the Employee.

5.1 Lodgement of Assessment instrument

- (a) Assessment instruments under this Appendix, including the appropriate percentage of the Agreement rate of pay, will be lodged by the Employer with the Fair Work Commission.
- (b) All Assessment instruments will be agreed and signed by the parties to the assessment, provided that:
 - (i) where a union is not a party to the assessment the Fair Work Commission will forward a copy of the assessment to the union; and
 - (ii) unless that union lodges an objection with the Fair Work Commission, the assessment will take effect after ten working days.

6.1 Review of Assessment

The assessment of the applicable percentage should be subject to annual review or earlier on the basis of a reasonable request for such a review. The process of review will be in accordance with the procedures for assessing capacity under the Supported Wage System.

7.1 Other terms and conditions of employment

Where an Assessment has been made, the applicable percentage will apply to the wage rate only. Employees covered by the provisions of the Appendix will be entitled to the same terms and conditions of employment as all other workers covered by this Agreement.

8.1 Workplace adjustment

The Employer wishing to employ a person under the provisions of this Appendix will take reasonable steps to make changes in the workplace to enhance the Employee's capacity to do the job. Changes may involve re-design of job duties, working time arrangements and work organisation in consultation with other workers in the area.

9.1 Trial periods and ongoing employment

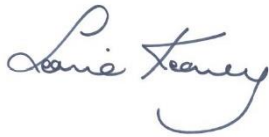

- (a) In order for an adequate assessment of the Employee's capacity to be made, the Employer may initially employ a person under the provisions of this Appendix for a trial period not exceeding 12 weeks, except that in some cases additional work adjustment time (not exceeding four weeks) may be needed.
- (b) During a trial period the assessment of capacity will be undertaken and the proposed wage rate for a continuing employment relationship will be determined.

- (c) The minimum amount payable to the Employee during the trial period will be no less than that set by the Fair Work Commission.
- (d) Work trials should include induction or training as appropriate to the job being trialled.
- (e) Where the Employer and Employee wish to establish a continuing employment relationship following the completion of the trial period, a further contract of employment will be entered into based on the outcome of the assessment.
